THE CHINESE SITUATION.
The matter of the Russo-American suggestions for the withdrawal of the allied forces from Peking is still in abeyance. Thus far the majority of the powers have withheld their acquiescence in the programme, and it is intimated that Russia may modify her proposals in deference to the wishes of the other powers. The question is apparently no nearer a determination than it has been for several days past.

A Washington dispatch says: "There is no disposition here to confound the offices of any of these Chinese officials who may have participated in the outrages in Peking, but it is questionable whether the present is an opportune time to administer punishment."

A telegram from Peking, dated August 24, announces that the German troops have taken possession of a hill within the imperial city. The same dispatch notes the arrival of 200 additional Italian troops at Taku.

The American Association at Shanghai, according to a dispatch to the Chicago Record, has requested Special Commissioner Rockhill to ask the President not to give his consent to the withdrawal of the American troops from Peking, to refuse to recognize the Empress Dowager and Li Hung Chang; and to lead his influence toward the restoration of the Emperor.

Emperor William is quoted in a Berlin dispatch to the New York Herald as having declared, at a dinner given to the officers of the corps of guards, that under no circumstances would the German troops leave Peking, not even if he had to mobilize every corps in the German army."

A dispatch was received yesterday by the War Department from Gen. Chaffee, stating that a written report of operations up to the relief of the legations will be forwarded as soon as possible. Gen. Chaffee adds that hostilities have practically ceased, only occasional shots being fired from cover; and that no considerable body of Chinese troops has been discovered at Taku or along the line of communication. Gen. Chaffee says that his present force numbers 6000 effectives, and that he regards this force as ample for the United States unless a political reason not apparent to him demands a larger force.

A report comes from Shanghai to the effect that an imperial edict issued at Tai Yen Fu appoints Li Hung Chang, H. W. Tong (father of the heir apparent), and Prince Ching commissioners to negotiate peace.

Four German warships arrived at Woosung September 3.

London reports the receipt of a special dispatch from St. Petersburg on the subject of Manchuria. According to this dispatch the Russian officials repudiate any intention to annex Manchuria or to occupy it entirely. The dispatch adds that Russia will claim an territorial concessions, provided the other powers remain so doing, and expressed the hope that the question of indemnities can be settled by the cooperation of the allied powers.

Horrible details have been received at Shanghai by representatives of the Associated Press, telling of the outrage, torture and murder of several American women missionaries. Full details of the outrages have been withheld at the request of the mission board out of regard for the feelings of the relatives of the murdered women.

The reports that relate what Li Hung Chang or Minister Wu "thinks" may always be drawn as mere guesses. Nobody knows what a Chinese diplomat thinks—only what he says he thinks.

ANOTHER RAILROAD POSSIBILITY. A like accidents, good things seldom come alone. While we are rejoicing over the assured early construction of the much-talked-of railroad between Los Angeles and Salt Lake City, there is a good probability that at or about the same time we may be called upon to celebrate the opening of another important line, which has been almost as much discussed during the past ten years or more.

Many shrewd railroad men believe that, as soon as work is commenced on the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railway, which will shorten the distance from Los Angeles to eastern communications 200 miles or more, the Southern Pacific Company will, to protect itself, be forced to take up the building of another cut-off, which would naturally be constructed through Inyo County. This is the natural outlet of Southern California toward the northeast. Many citizens remember the days when the big mule teams of Remo Nadau made regular trips between this city and Independence, in Inyo county, which carries the names of a large proportion of the bankers and wholesale merchants of the city—a list which it is claimed represents over $30,000,000—in which the commission is requested not to enforce the resolution which it has adopted requiring THE PUBLIC SERVICE—IN THE OFFICES AND COURTS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Police Commissioners has not finished its work of suspending saloon licenses. Only the fact that the judicial proceedings have not been completed, prevented another wholesale suspension yesterday. The board will do the job this morning to complete the task.

The temperance people of the city are giving the Board of Police Commissioners earnest support in the crusade against the evil. At yesterday's meeting several communications were read concerning the course that should be taken.

Going to a provision of the city charter it will be necessary for those officials who have given surety bonds to hand over the city to give new bonds with personal security.

The Public Library will be closed in all its departments next Monday and Tuesday hours will be observed next Tuesday.

The City Council yesterday passed an ordinance officially establishing the tax rates and fixing the allowances to be made to the various departments.

Work of the Traction franchise applications will not be made until next week. The board tried a rush procedure.

The application of Al. Levy and other liquor men, for a legal decision, overruling the action of the Police Commissioners in suspending saloons, was submitted, but no private boxes were removed.

After the board had disposed of the routine business, the members voted for the purpose of considering the acting chief's report. For more than an hour they remained there. Mr. Levy, however, and during the time he was in the office of the City Attorney, but that official was engaged in arguing the case of the board.

What he wanted to ascertain was whether "if the board suspended other licensees, it would be in contempt of the law." Mr. Levy for the purpose of the hearing, but he who will suffer for not having the order to the removal of the private boxes. That there were not general suspensions of licenses yesterday by the board was due only to the fact that that body was in doubt as to what the law required.

At the same time late Saturday night at the home of some of the saloon men of that order was made only after consulting Chief of Police Bradish, and the board assembled in open session.

And were made parties defendant in a action, none of them had seen any of the complainants. Confident that the board would not be in their favor, the board spent nearly an hour in executive session, considering what other licenses will be suspended.

Later, when it was learned that in executive session the board almost unanimously determined that it would suspend a number of other licensees, the regular report of the board was read and the board moved that inasmuch as there is some doubt as to what the temporary restraining order includes, and as the board does not feel authorized to make any final determination, it adjourned until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The motion was adopted.

(POLICE AND JUSTICE COURTS.)
HOLT'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Alleged False-alarm Fiend Given Benefit of Doubt—Other Cases.

Arthur W. Holt, an erratic young man who aspires to a position in the fire department, was given a reprieve on the charge of turning in a false alarm, in Justice Austin's court yesterday. Circumstantial evidence convincing nature was introduced against the defendant, but none of the witnesses could positively identify the person who turned in the alarm. On the instant came the accident of the day.

The first witness examined for the people was Miss Ruth Howard of No. 22 Olive street, who testified that at about 11 o'clock on the night of August 11 she heard a noise coming from one of the electric fire alarms of the city. Anticipating his purpose to turn in an alarm, she quickly telephoned the fact to the department. A moment afterward the announced and man who had been at the fire walked briskly up Olive street, in stature and dress very much resembled the defendant, but she could not swear positively that it was the man who turned in the alarm.

Robert W. Burns, clerk of the Fire Department, testified that he responded to the alarm, reaching the scene on his bicycle. In advance of any of the engine companies, he met Miss Howard again, who informed him that she had seen him ride his wheel. He admitted, however, that he was about to do so when a policeman interrupted him. His bicycle, incidentally, had a red bell. Corl Ross was fined $2 for riding on a sidewalk.

A bench warrant was issued for the arrest of Albert Steiner on a similar complaint.

at the hands of the court, Mr. Jones attempted to prove that his gallery of the nude in art had been carefully censured by Police Sergeant George Williams, and all the pictures which he had taken of the nude had been thrown out of the collection. Furthermore, the defendant offered to show the court no end of pictures published in art magazines, mostly political, which were more chaste or modest than those exhibited by the defendant.

Justice Morgan cut the proceedings short by ordering the defendant to undergo an ocular examination to see if he was prepared to say that there was nothing lewd, indecent or suggestive about the pictures exhibited by the defendant. The court did not believe that public morals would be impaired by reason of them and the defendant was accordingly discharged.

RUSSELL'S RE-TRAIL.

CULPEPER'S BAIL DENIED.

Justice Austin yesterday ordered a new trial of Hillard Russell on the charge of petty larceny, and raised the charge of his ball from $100 to $400 cash, or $700 bond. Deputy District Attorney Chambers wanted the amount placed at $1,000 or $1,200, but the court considered $700 sufficient.

Russell's late attorney, G. W. White, gave notice of his desire to withdraw from the case. A continuance was, therefore, granted till next Friday, when the trial will be held again.

Russell was arrested yesterday noon while at work. He had $22.14 in his pocket when arrested, and in a few minutes a full amount of the ball required by him was deposited with the court.

GAVE HIMSELF UP.

MACAROLO FACES THE COURT.

Con Macarolo, 21, who was on the night of August 19 in alleged to have stabbed Antonio Pellegrini, inflicting painful, but not dangerous, wounds, surrendered himself to the authorities yesterday to answer the charge of assault with deadly weapon. A warrant was issued for his apprehension.

Macarolo's lawyer, John C. Morrissey, said that the police could not find him. His wife stated that she did not know what had become of him.

Macarolo now pretends he was not aware that he was wanted until word was conveyed to him recently by his lawyer. He also alleged that he had been at the fire walking briskly up Olive street, in stature and dress very much resembled the defendant, and he could not swear positively that it was the man who turned in the alarm.

He was arraigned before Justice Morgan and promptly gave bail in the sum of $750 for his appearance for preliminary examination Saturday.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Statesman, Historian, Economist, Author and Soldier,
Governor of New York, and Candidate for Vice-President of the United States.

PROMPTLY upon Governor Roosevelt's nomination for the Vice-Presidency, the leading Republican and Independent newspapers, believing they would be rendering a public service, formed an association to act as one buyer of an enormous edition of Governor Roosevelt's writings, so that all newspaper readers could obtain a fine library edition at a nominal price. The representative of the papers arranged with Governor Roosevelt's publishers, Messrs. G. P. Putnam's Sons, to obtain from them a limited edition to be sold for

$7.50 A SET IN CLOTH BINDING, INSTEAD OF AT $24.50, the price which has heretofore prevailed. This edition is

in sets of Fifteen Volumes for $7.50, or in single Volumes

For 50 Cents a Copy

They also arranged for a limited number of copies to be bound in PAPER COVERS, with untrimmed edges, so that those desiring it, could have the works bound in half calf, or other fine and expensive binding, as individual taste might desire. In this form they will be sold for the almost nominal price of $3.75 for the set of Fifteen Volumes, or in single volumes

For 25 Cents a Copy

The Messrs. Putnam's well known and well deserved reputation as makers of fine books, renders a further description of this beautiful edition unnecessary.

It may be stated, however, that among the illustrations will be found three separate portraits of Governor Roosevelt, as hunter, soldier and in civilian dress, and that has written a biographical sketch of Governor Roosevelt which will appear in this edition only.

REMEMBER the price heretofore, in cloth binding, cheapest edition, has been $24.50, and in finer binding up to $100 a set, at which many copies have been sold. The present low price of 25 cents a volume, or $7.50 a set in cloth binding has been made with Governor Roosevelt's approval, to enable all his friends and admirers (and they are legion) as well as his opponents who are honest in their desire to know him as he is, to secure the complete set of these works at a moderate price. They will form a permanent and valuable addition to every library. The edition is limited and after the newspapers have made the distribution to their readers the regular price of $24.50 a set will prevail. Therefore delay in ordering now may lead to disappointment.

Act Now and Secure the Set.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Governor of New York State and candidate for Vice-President, not yet forty-two years old, is one of the "all-around" Americans of whom his countrymen are proud. Statesman, historian, economist, soldier, hunter, author, whatever he has turned his hand to do has been well done. As an author he has many volumes already to his credit. One of these, written during his term in the Assembly, "The Naval War of 1812," was so able and impartial, exhibiting such judicial fairness that he has been engaged to write (and has written) that particular chapter of English naval history for the monumental "History of the English Navy," which the English naval experts are now issuing in great quarto volumes. No greater compliment has ever been paid in literature.

His latest book, "The Rough Riders," is everywhere recognized as one of the most perfect chapters of military history ever penned—both for manner and matter.

As a historian of the new school, Mr. Roosevelt's great work is "The Winning of the West," published in this edition in six volumes. His stories of "Hunting Trips of a Ranchman" and "The Wilderness Hunter" are marked by freshness, strength and felicity of expression as characteristic of the man as the accuracy, breadth and fairness of his historical works.

Mr. Roosevelt is a typical American, his ancestors having settled in New York in 1649. His great-grandfathers were officers in the Continental Army and Members of the Continental Congress. On both sides he comes from generations noted for their ability, patriotism and integrity, and it was the most natural thing for him to enter politics as a Civil Service reformer in the New York assembly a year after his graduation from college.

Whatever his hand was called upon to do, was well done and thoroughly done as his books show.

To form a true estimate of Gov. Roosevelt's character one must read his writings. They show, as no words can, what the man is.

The Wilderness Hunter

"Written by a mighty hunter, also a naturalist as well as a sportsman, a close observer of men and scenes in the wilds."

Hunting the Grizzly, and other Selections

"One of those distinctively American books which ought to be always welcomed as contributing distinctively to raise the literary prestige of the country all over the world."

American Ideas

"These essays are written on behalf of the many men who do take an active part in trying to improve the condition of the nation, which are not easily heard because of the under-officers in that army which, with much stumbling, halting and slipping, many mistakes and shortcomings, and many painful failures, does nevertheless through many trials accomplish something, and indeed raise the standard of public life." —From the Preface.

Administration—Civil Service

"Written in a spirit of interest for the voters of today, in that they set forth the author's theories (theories based upon practical experience) of citizenship and of administration."

Hunting Trips of a Ranchman

Covering ranching in the Old Lands and hunting large game and waterfowl.

Hunting Trips on the Prairie and in the Wilderness

"These sketches are not merely interesting as graphic pictures of hunting life, but have a historic value in describing a condition of things now rapidly passing away in the region of the prairie and the Rocky Mountains."

The Rough Riders

A valuable addition to American historical literature, covering the stirring events of the Cuban War.

The Winning of the West

"The six volumes presented in this history, while each complete in itself, comprises together a pictorial and comprehensive history of the winning of the West. The critics have noted out that Governor Roosevelt has made a record for the Southwest that can fairly be paralleled with the greatest names by any man on the territory of the Northwest."

The Naval War of 1812

Or, "The History of the United States Navy during the last war with Great Britain." To which is appended an account of the Battle of New Orleans.

"The volume is an excellent one in every respect, and shows in so young an author the best promise for a good historian—fearlessness of statement, caution, endeavor to be impartial, and a brisk and interesting way of telling events."

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

DOTS AND DASHES.

End of the Season.

The summer season at Terminal Island, which has been one of the gayest of the resorts this year, has at last ended. The great Sunday night hops had to be given up last Saturday, because there were not men enough to go round.

Bad Rhyme?

A. Rehnn was arrested on North Main Street yesterday afternoon and booked at the City Prison on the charge of disturbing the peace, but was allowed to go on his own recognition, pending a hearing in the Police Court this morning. He is accused of having raised a disturbance in a clothing store.

Maternal Troubles.

A man giving the name of Peter Paul was arrested on Central avenue yesterday afternoon and sent in on the charge of vagrancy. He was found to have half a sack of potatoes, with which were mixed a few cucumbers, pears and one old shoe. They went into the ladder of the jail kitchen, shot and all.

Their Vacation.

A. W. Forrester, clerk of Department of Justice of the County Court, started on a vacation yesterday. He will make a trip through the Ventura oil districts, in which he is interested. Tom Murphy, the county jailor, is also a prominent citizen, and is bound for Catalina. Murphy says he would like to harpoon a whale on the way. At one time he was a sailor on a New Bedford whaler.

Failed Up.

Two voluntary petitions in bankruptcy were filed yesterday in the United States District Court. Anthony Arnett, retired, of La Jolla, San Diego county, acknowledged an indebtedness of $1,000,000, and John C. Cole, in the shape of an oil mining contract, judgment upon which was obtained in September, 1888. As an offer, Arnett agreed to pay the world's wearing apparel, which is exempt from execution. Jerry W. Fly, farmer of Roso, San Luis Obispo county, filed his notes and mortgages amounting to $16,250, as his indebtedness, and his assets consist of $10,75 in personal property.

Fire Department.

Several great fires of light, such as might issues from the stock of a blast furnace, shot from the roof of the Van Nuys, Broadway last night, shortly after 9 o'clock. An alarm was turned in from Fourth and Spring streets, and the fire department was quickly on the ground. The harm done was caused by the burning gas and soot in the chimney. Engine company No. 2, under the command of Captain N. P. Farnsworth, was turning up Spring street near Sixth. The middle horse in the steamer stumbled and fell, and before he could recover the engine was thrown and the engine dashed into the rear of the steamer. The pole of the chemical was broken off and one of its horses was hurt. The other horse was thrown by two machines and trampled by the other horse. None of the firemen were injured.

Jury Out.

Maurice Diaz was on the girdiron in the United States Circuit Court all day yesterday. He was charged with passing counterfeit money, and his attorney, David Allen, of this city and Ruth S. Stover, of Boston, made a heroic effort in his defense. The United States was represented by Frank P. Finn, United States District Attorney, and James R. Finch, assistant. The charge of Judge Bellhorn occupied just three minutes. He stated that there was no question to the passage of the counterfeiting bill passed by Diaz, the only question for the jury being as to his intent. The case was given to the jury at 10:30 a.m., but it sat a long time last night and did not sit in their quarters in the "sky parlor" of the Federal building, without having agreed upon a verdict.
